We have recently received several reports of cold callers in the South Lakes area. Most recently a group of males were calling at properties in Coniston, claiming to be ex-army or forces, trying to sell items of cleaning materials.

Should similar incidents occur we would advise residents to please say NO politely and report any suspicious incidents to the Police on 101. We also advise you to keep doors locked and please don't invite anyone into your property that you don't know.
